DEVELOPING LEADERS

Ranger Corporate Adventures provides some of the most intense high-adventure leadership and team-building programs available.

- ☺ We are with you, side-by-side, constantly teaching through realistic scenarios.
- ☺ All trainees spend time as both a leader and follower.
- ☺ The stressors are real and the decisions are important.

Following the Army's proven training philosophy of "Crawl - Walk - Run," each of our programs provide a solid foundation for future, and more advanced, learning.

CRAWL: RANGER INDOC

An optional one- to two-day team development program at your location which prepares each trainee for the mental and physical rigors of the three-day field training exercise.

Our staff will tailor your onsite training program based on your organization's specific needs. We are experts at developing unique leadership and team-building programs.

WALK: Corporate Ranger School

Our premier leadership development program. Each trainee is placed in a variety of situations which test and accentuate important leadership traits, as well as the Army's values.

A three-day competitive test of personal strength and courage, through a variety of high-adventure activities, including:

- Mountain Climbing
- Cliff Rappelling
- Marksmanship
- Martial Arts
- Squad Exercises
- AirSoft

RUN: ADVANCED CORPORATE RANGER SCHOOL

For graduates of Corporate Ranger School with 3-5 years in a business environment and who have completed our one-year Corporate Ranger Mentoring and Coaching Program.

Trainees will return to the field for four days in a senior leadership capacity, focusing on strategic planning, conflict management and organizational development skills.

RCA LEADERSHIP AND CADRE

Ranger Corporate Adventures has a diverse team of seasoned experts, with over 200 years of combined military and corporate experience. We will guide you through a multitude of leadership, self-awareness and team-building activities, within a military environment.
